

There is no need for any legislation to limit the XM radio company. The instant weather report they are providing is very helpful to those of us that are using X M radio in their autos. The legislation proposed would take a service away from us and not provide anything in their place.